

“As I have sown the seed of blessings by faith, sales have only increased.”

Testimony of 2 Nakhong Im,
President of Lime Insurance, Inc.

District Leader, 2-17th
District; 2-2nd Men's Mission

- Summary from the Previous Issue -

In his youth, Deacon Nakhong boldly proclaimed he would one day become a successful entrepreneur. As the owner of “Flowers at a Lightning Speed,” a flower delivery service, he was making every effort to be successful and married. Shortly thereafter, it is revealed that their first child, still unborn, may be suffering from Down syndrome. From this, he repented of his lukewarm faith and began his life anew. When his initial intention of trusting only in God faltered, his business that had been nothing but a smooth sailing also began to falter. He repented of the way in which he had changed. At the recommendation of an acquaintance, he decided to stand up on his feet again in the insurance industry.

After switching careers from a life insurance planner, which guaranteed a relatively high income, to a property insurance planner, I began to suffer financially. I usually had a roll of gimbap [Editor's Note: gimbap is a popular Korean fast food made from steamed white rice (bap) and various other ingredients, rolled in gim (sheets of dried seaweed) and served warm in bite-size slices] and had kimchi as the only side dish at home. When we couldn't pay for the city gas, we made use of butane gas for cooking and when we ran out of rice, we prayed and received it from God. When I was unable to make payments on loans, my properties were seized with some of them put up on an auction. Thankfully, however, none of them were bought out. Holding fast to the message, “Blessing will come when you overcome trials in joy and gratitude,” I overcame them through fervent prayer.

Trusting in the shepherd, prosperity in everything

In February 2006, I began a damage insurance company in an office slightly bigger than 71 square feet. I took heed of the lesson while running the flower delivery service the way I wanted to run. I engraved the Scriptures, “Put your trust in the LORD your God and you will be established. Put your trust in His prophets and succeed” (2 Chronicles 20:20) in my heart. I made sure to see the Senior Pastor and receive his prayer every week. Furthermore, remembering the Senior Pastor's teaching that I needed to tread the right path in order to receive God's blessings, I made every effort to set my business and run it on the right path.

Then I began to perceive the Senior Pastor's messages in a wholly different way. I struggled to please God by always looking back to see whether or not I had committed any illegal activities even subconsciously, whether or not my heart had been stirred up by greed and pride, and whether or not I was at peace with everyone and serving my employees from the depths of my heart. Then the threads of blessings began to be unraveled. As sales and the number of employees increased, from the 71-square-foot office we moved to 142, then to 250-square-foot offices.

A heart without wavering

As 2007 dawned, I received the Senior Pastor's prayer with my employees and family. At the time, there were four salesmen including myself and the sales goal was $5,000. However, we could not meet that goal at the halfway point of 2007. I thought I had a heart that did not waver but even by December, I was unable to accomplish that goal. I thought carefully over what had gone wrong.

“That's right! God was testing me to see whether or not my heart would waver!”

As I had a heart that would not waver even according to my own assessment, I rejoiced. During the first week of January 2008, I went before the Senior Pastor with my family and employees to receive his prayer. After finishing the prayer, the Senior Pastor said, “May your business prosper in 2008.”

Without skipping a beat, I declared in a loud voice, “Amen.” At that moment, my heart was deeply touched and from that point on, I made every effort to deal with others in goodness and run the business on the right path. God then sent my way good-hearted employees and we were able to close deals at places we hadn't expected. By the end of January 2008, sales exceeded $5,000, $7,000 by the end of February, and $12,000 by the end of March. The staff increased in size to 30 employees.

Contracts flooding in, selected as ‘Excellent Corporation’

In April 2008, I founded Lime Insurance, Inc. in a 534-square-foot office. At the time, instead of a guarantee insurance product from Hanhwa General Insurance, a savings insurance product, an investment-technique item, from Shinhan Life had been just launched.

“The moment is now!” I thought to myself. “Let's change the product.”

After devoting some time to prayer, I became convinced that the new product would be a hit among the clients and I boldly made the switch. Of course, the contracts flooded in and by July 2008, our office had become too small for a forty-member staff.

Unexpected things took place when I ran a business. At such times, as I made sure to receive the Senior Pastor's prayer and devoted myself even more earnestly to prayer, God led me to prosperity.

As the office space became cramped, I wished to move to a bigger office. At the time, many insurance companies had policies of supporting the branches with paying rents when the branches have met certain qualifications. As our branch had been recognized by Shinhan Life's corporate office as an “Excellent Corporation” within three months of the founding, our branch was qualified. We were to receive financial support from the corporate not only for the new 5,338-square-foot office, with 2,847 square feet for exclusive use, but also the security deposit, monthly rents, maintenance fees, expenses on the interior, and even the furnishings. The only condition the corporate provided was that we raise the sales correspondingly but I was not worried about this. The corporate, however, demanded the landlord that he establish collateral security more than 2-3 times the leased floor space.

“It's actually quite difficult to establish collateral security to an office space whose rent is paid every month.”

The broker also added that there had never been collateral security established at this building. At the moment, I realized the only solution was to receive prayer from the Senior Pastor and all of the employees united in prayer. Then something that could not have happened indeed happened. The landlord agreed to accept all terms put forth by the corporate.

Secret to blessings? Running the business on the right path

In April 2009, we celebrated the one year anniversary of the branch. During the month of April, our sales exceeded $75,000 in the monthly insurance conversion. Compared to $7,500 a year before, the sales had increased 10 times. In June 2009, monthly sales exceeded $100,000 and $175,000 by December. These blessings, however, did not fall from the heavens.

During an employee workshop that April, I discussed with my employees the strategies on growth and all of us vowed to tread the right path no matter what and to sow seeds of blessings by faith every month. All officers and employees became one, made every effort to be at peace with each other and boost one another's morale, and served the clients as if they were members of their own family members. During a monthly meeting in February 2010, we vowed to drive away from us harmful habits in making sales, unscrupulous hearts and minds, and words of no use. In the two months since that policy was implemented, conflicts with clients subsided, earnings could be accurately predicted, and the incomplete sales rate has been noticeably improved. I gave thanks and glory to God as I saw the employees recognizing and rejoicing at the blessings God was pouring upon them.

“God who delights in honesty, goodness, and peace is unceasingly pouring His blessings upon us. The Senior Pastor's teachings and obedience to them are the driving force behind undeniable blessings.”

From early 2010, the number of employees has been on the rapid rise and many more have been contacting us about joining our company. As the monthly sales increased steadily, we rented another 1,673-square-foot office and by the end of March, the number of employees increased to 108.

I set my sights on our company becoming the best in this industry, and hope this will be an enterprise of faith that gives glory to God through the right-path management.

The Third Steppingstone for Reaping; Setting Hearts on Fire by Prayer

Fifth week of “The Two Consecutive Daniel Prayer Meetings” led by Mrs. Boknim Lee

Taking place every night starting at 9 p.m. and closing at 11:40 p.m. (until 11 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays) from March 15 to April 25, 2010, “The Two Consecutive Daniel Prayer Meetings” led by Mrs. Boknim Lee, President of Manmin Prayer Center, has entered its fifth week.

Being held under the theme “Fruit of Blessings” (Numbers 6:24-26), in order to pick the fruit of blessings in “2010, the year of reaping,” brothers and sisters at Manmin have been devoting themselves to prayer not only for their own desires of the heart but also for the Senior Pastor, the construction of sanctuaries, financial blessings and prosperity, pastors and church workers, carrying out of their God-given duties, branch sanctuaries and churches, and the country and its people.

The fervor for prayer is even more evident this time. Throughout the Main Sanctuary, it is easy to find church members praying by themselves, with their families, or with fellow members of the missions to which they belong.

Motivated and enlightened by Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee's such recent sermon series as “Cultivate Heartfield” and “The Law on Sowing and Reaping,” Manmin members have been uprooting the bitter roots of their heart and preparing vessels worthy of God's blessings.

Furthermore, as they sing praises whose words have been revealed by God Himself, brothers and sisters at Manmin are given opportunities to recognize God's love. When Mrs. Boknim Lee lays her hand on the church members to pray for them, many have received

Demolish Self-righteousness and Framework (1)

"For My thoughts are not your thoughts, Nor are your ways My ways," declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, So are My ways higher than your ways And My thoughts than your thoughts" (Isaiah 55:8-9).

Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee

What is the reason that religious leaders rejected Jesus in His time? When Jesus healed the sick on the Sabbath day, the religious leaders blamed Him for violating the commandment of the Sabbath. Keeping the Sabbath is the will of God, but they judged and condemned Jesus because they had wrong thoughts of the Sabbath. Similarly, some believers seem to lead a fervent believing life but do not grow anymore but get stagnated in spirit because of their self-righteousness and frameworks. What then do the self-righteousness and frameworks refer to and how can we destroy them?

First, self-righteousness is to insist that we are right. Actually, an ordinary meaning of 'righteousness' is doing the right things that men are supposed to do. Also, in the truth, righteousness is to act in honesty and justly following the will of God (Psalm 11:7). Many people insist their opinions are right with their own standard of judgment (Isaiah 55:8-9). Even though men think something is right, it is not always right in the sight of God. If we insist that we are right and hold fast to our opinions, it is self-righteousness.

One part of this self-righteousness is the worldly righteousness, which is the righteousness that is certainly against the will of God. For example, in some historical novels or martial arts novels, the hero lives his life only to take revenge for his parents, because he thinks it is his duty to take vengeance for his parents. If he absolutely believes it and acts that way, it is in accordance with men's righteousness. But what is the will of God? It is to love even our enemies. Therefore, vengeance is worldly righteousness and it is contrary to the will of God.

Next, another aspect of self-righteousness is that it is a righteousness formed on the foundation of the truth. This righteousness is masked with the truth, so you cannot really differentiate it from the righteousness of God. This righteousness formed within the truth is shown more often in the third level of faith than the first or the second levels of faith.

In this level, you have extensive knowledge of the truth, practice the truth to some extent, and fulfill your duties well, too. You can even bear fruit in your duties. So, you are apt to overestimate your level of faith. Without noticing it, you think that your ideas are right and your actions are right.

Second, a framework is a hardened way of thinking that whatever is thought to be right is right.

People form their framework of thoughts based on what they see, hear, and learn. Based on their knowledge or experience, they harden their opinions on as to what is morally right, what is an educated act, and what is really right. It is so hardened that it cannot be easily changed; this is a "framework of thoughts".

These frameworks are different from person to person. It's because their personalities and the environments in which they were raised, and the knowledge and education they received are all different. But this framework is often not right according to facts or the truth of God. But most people discern between the right and wrong based on this framework. Self-righteousness starts from this framework. Based on their frameworks, they persist in the belief that they are right. This is self-righteousness.

Thus, self-righteousness and frameworks are very closely related. But you have to check yourself very carefully.

The frameworks can also be categorized into worldly frameworks and frameworks in the truth. Worldly frameworks, simply speaking, are the frameworks that you make with the worldly knowledge, education, and social etiquette. For example, if we say men were not evolved from apes but created by God, they can't believe it. Because of the frameworks of knowledge thinking that only scientific knowledge is the best, they cannot accept the word.

Next, the frameworks of the truth are the frameworks made based on the truth, the Word of God in faith, unlike the frameworks of the world. This framework of truth is the major obstacle that hinders you from going into spirit. At the time of Jesus, one of the reasons why the religious leaders persecuted Him was because of this framework of truth.

In Jesus' time, the Pharisees kept the Law very strictly. They strictly kept not only the commandments given by God but also the traditions of the elders. But the Pharisees judged and criticized Jesus, who is the truth itself, due to their wrong frameworks. This is an example of frameworks that are wrong but are formed based on the truth. To be more precise, it is a framework that is wrong because it is formed by distorting the truth.

But the bigger problem than these is to make a new framework of truth with the truth that you learn in your life in faith. You think something is the will of God and the truth, but in so many cases it is not. Details and examples of such cases will be explained at the next issue.

A Visit to Manmin Central Church by Members of London Manmin Church

Missionary Princess Jane Mpologoma and her husband Missionary Duke David William Mukasa at Muan Sweet Water Aquarium

Missionary Princess Jane Mpologoma (Princess of Buganda Kingdom), her husband Missionary Duke David William Mukasa, representative of Sweden Manmin Church, and members of London Manmin Church visited Manmin Central Church. After joining Manmin Church, each of them has received and experienced God's answers to their prayers and healing, and is leading a new life. They longed to meet with Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee and thus traveled to Korea.

During their stay between March 29 and April 6 in Korea, they attended the Friday All-night Service and Sunday Services, toured the church including the Muan Sweet Water Aquarium, as well as the Manmin TV office and Muan Manmin Church, the site and source of the Sweet Water. During their stay, the visitors attended "The Two Consecutive Daniel Prayer Meetings" in the Main Sanctuary. Prior to the Friday All-night Service on April 2, they met with Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee and shared their testimonies and resulting joy.

As they left Korea on Tuesday the 6th of April, they gave thanks to God who had been with them throughout their stay in Korea and expressed heartfelt gratitude for the church's hospitality.

During "The Two Consecutive Daniel Prayer Meetings," with the presence of the Holy Spirit, we felt as though our bodies were afloat. While praying, we became convinced of God's answers, our heart was at peace, and we were filled with the love of the Lord.

Church Visit ♦ The church was spotless and beautiful. Love and kindness abounded in every member. It was very interesting to note the church's size and how so many departments were gathered at one place. We saw church workers with a true heart for God's kingdom working diligently, and through them we could see the Senior Pastor.

Visit to Manmin TV ♦ As soon as we entered the Manmin TV office, we were greeted by kindhearted workers and we were particularly touched by its broadcast ministry. Things going on at Manmin TV were truly astonishing. We have now seen how Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee's sermon programs are produced and we are grateful for their work.

Visit to Muan Manmin Church ♦ This was a place wholly sacred and filled with grace at which we could feel in our heart the Almighty God. When we submerged ourselves in the cold Sweet Water amidst the presence of the Holy Spirit, we immediately felt our bodies warming up and our hearts filled with the love of Our Lord. We give thanks and glory to God who has given us the Muan Sweet Water.

Meeting with the Senior Pastor ♦ Even though he is a man of God and has received marvelous power from God, Dr. Lee is very humble and worthy of respect. We could feel his immense love when he prayed for us, our family members, and members of London Manmin Church. After meeting with him, we have vowed to love and serve God more and be more faithful in doing the Lord's work.
