

“The Lord Totally Changed the Journey of Life of a Homeless Person!”

Deacon Seokwon Chang (2-4th Men's Mission, 12-2nd Parish)

My heart was swollen with the thought that I would be able to meet a woman, get married and have a happy family over 30 years old. I committed all my money to her, but later I discovered she was a married woman who had a daughter and parted from her.

I fell into a great shock, and began leading a loose life, squandering money. In my late forties, the future seemed gloomy and I was at a loss what to do. I tried to live an earnest life renewing my heart, but misfortunes continually came on me. To make the matters worse, I got involved in a traffic accident and came to suffer from the fracture of the left shoulder blade, the damage on the right ribs and paralysis on the right leg.

I was forcefully discharged from the hospital and began to live a miserable life a homeless man. I moved around a few subway stations including Seoul Station and Yongsan Station, and lived under the Noryangjin Railroad Bridge and at the restroom in the park. To make a living, I collected waste paper and lived from hand to mouth with the income from selling the waste paper.

On July 6, 2005 I met with my parish leader Pastor Hakbum Kim and my district leader Deaconess Minjung Kim at the kids' park in Daerim-Dong, Youngdeungpo-Gu, Seoul. That day I was guided to attend the Wednesday Evening Service at Manmin Central Church by them, and so touched at the message. My heart was attracted to the church. After the service came to an end, I returned to the park. All of a sudden, an old woman who was running a used-garments' store called me and said to me, "Are you looking for a house? I'll let my room out for you. You'll pay for it when

She planted faith into my heart. Pastor Kim and district members bought a new suit for me and provided me with food and many necessary things. They really helped me be able to live an independent life, with their devotional service and love.

In 2008, I got a job and my life was restored, but at a corner of my heart greed grew. Because of covetousness for more money, I got involved in dealing with illegal fakes and resulted in a penniless beggar. I couldn't dare to go to the church because I felt so sorry for that. I wanted to go to church again with confidence after earning money. But it was you earn much money."

It was an extraordinary thing. Now I know such a thing happened because God was pleased when I listened to the evangelists and attended the church.

The following day the pastor came to me again and testified to the living God and Jesus Christ.

not easy. I really needed a mobile phone, so I bought a new one even if I had little money at that time. As soon as my mobile was opened, I received the phone call from my group leader. With his help I was able to attend church again and be provided with food and dwelling shelter by group leaders. In addition, I was employed at the Seoul Joong-ang Insu Branch, Shinhan Life Insurance Inc. I filled my heart with the Lord's love, raised my faith and led an ardent life of faith in faith.

While listening to the Word of God, my life began to change and I came to Senior Pastor to greet him. I walked the right way as taught by him, and thought how I could please God. In addition, I kept the Lord's Day holy, and gave the tithe and various offerings to God. As a result, my spirit prospered and I was assigned with a duty of a group leader and received financial blessing in the midst of the increase of the number of insurance contracts. I am trying my best to evangelize others testifying to my life, and to serve and help the rejected. How thankful my life is!

“I was Healed of Folliculitis from My Head”

Deaconess Eunmi Kim (1st Mary's Mission, 7th Parish)

In February of 2010, I felt fever on my head. At first a few cysts developed on skin of the back head, but soon it spread to all the parts of the head but on the top. Lymphatic glands got swollen like clusters of grape. After the evaluation, I was diagnosed with folliculitis and virus intruded into the lymphatic glands by the second infection. I couldn't endure with itchy, and whenever I scratched, discharges oozed out and it smelled so bad because of purulent inflammation on the hands, feet, and the claws.

On Sunday, February 21, when I came to Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee, he said to me, "God is leading you to become sanctified!" Praying to the Lord, I realized clearly why this had happened to me. I repented with tears of my lingering attachments to the world, not having loved my family, and having complained and groaned.

On that week I was attending the diving healing meetings held in Manmin Prayer

Center. When its President Mrs. Boknim Lee prayed for me, the fire of the Holy Spirit came upon me and something amazing occurred to me. Chill departed from me, and scabs covered the sick parts where pus and blood had oozed out. Discharges secreted from the scabs, and scabs fell off and covered repeatedly. Sores on the head, elbows, and feet were recovered remarkably and the swelling of the lymphatic glands calmed down. It was not long before I was completely healed.

It used to be painful to do small things including washing my hairs before, but I am feeling the Lord's love washing my hair freely.

The head was covered with boils due to abscess on the skin, and severe itchiness, discharges, and bad odor followed.

Hallucination, Auditory Hallucination and Severe Depression Disappeared

Brother Moonhak Nah (Chinese Parish)

Brother Moonhak Nah was swindled out of about 15,000 US Dollars by his friend, and later lent 27,000 Dollars to a company president who had promised him to get a good job for him. One day when he heard the president died, he was greatly shocked and suffered depression.

On January 3, 2010, depression worsened and hallucination, auditory hallucination intermittently happened to him, so he showed strange actions. He failed to recognize his family and repeatedly said he wanted to die. He quit his job a few days later.

On January 13, the great leader of Chinese Parish, Pastor Doochun Shin, Pastor Eunhee Bae, and a few workers visited him and prayed for him. His wife Sister Haeyoung Kim helped him listen to the cassette tapes of The Message of the Cross and plant faith into his heart. Two days later Sister Kim brought his picture to Dr. Jaerock Lee and he prayed on the picture. After that many symptoms Brother Nah had suffered from came to disappear. He began reading Dr. Jaerock Lee's testimonial memoirs Tasting Eternal Life before Death and shed many tears. Through the home worship services led by parish leader and district leaders, he came to understand the love of God and Jesus Christ, and he earnestly repented of his sins. On January 17, he came to Dr. Jaerock Lee and received his prayer, and then he was recovered to normal very quickly. Now he regained his job and is living a happy life.

May is the Month of Service Featured with Children's Sunday, Parents' Sunday and Teachers' Sunday

May is the month of service in which we send our gratitude and love to our beloved ones. Sunday Children's School offered Children's Sunday Celebration Service to God at 1:30 PM on May 2, 2010 and Speaker Dr. Jaerock Lee delivered the message titled with "The Hope for Heaven." In his message, Dr. Lee said, "Many children hope to become famous pop singers and stars due to their gorgeous appearances, but the children of Manmin should hope to become heavenly singers and performers. So, you should always pray, sing praises and take delight in reading the Bible, and examine at each moment which is pleasing to God." This service was broadcast live to many branch churches on GCN-Manmin TV and the Internet. In commemoration of Parents' Sunday, Students' Mission invited many fathers and mothers and celebrated a special Saturday Praise Service on Saturday, May 8, and Senior Deaconesses' Mission brought elderly people who are over 70 years old and held a party for them after the Sunday Morning Service on May 9, in the midst of special performances of Serem Korean Music Team, Artistic Dance Team, and Crystal Singers. ## Many Pastors Renewed with Change and Resolution at a Special Pastors' Education

Two-day Pastors' Seminar was held at the Sorak Mountain Daemyoung Membership Resort on April 26 and 27, 2010. This seminar was attended by 170 pastors and missionaries including all pastors from Manmin Central Church and many missionaries from USA, Japan, the Philippines, China, and India. Based on Hebrews 11:1-3, 6, Speaker Dr. Jaerock Lee gave a detailed education on fleshly hearts including selfish desires and greed, and how to take care of the souls. This seminar took 5 hours and 30 minutes, and after dinner they offered a special Resolution Prayer Meeting. Next day all pastors and missionaries attending this seminar climbed a small mountain of the Sorak Mountains and rejoiced in seeing a clear rainbow at the top of the mountain. Many of them confessed they experienced depths of God's love, discovered themselves according to the message, and renewed their faith thoroughly.

What Is Goodness?

"This is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all." (1 John 1:5)

Just the way 1 John 1:5 says, "God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all," God's children have to take after Him and accomplish goodness that is without any evil. To the extent that you cultivate goodness, you can enjoy great honor in Heaven and receive all of the complete rewards for everything you do here on earth. What should you do to be recognized for goodness by God?

First of all, you have to completely and thoroughly hate and abhor evil.

Since evil is the opposite of goodness, to cultivate goodness, you obviously have to hate evil. People say that they long for goodness, but in reality they have lingering attachments to the world and they cherish evil. With their lips they pray that they want to become sanctified, but in their everyday lives they do not cast off evil. They just continue in their old habits.

For example, if somebody wants to be truthful, he has to hate the evil called falsehood. He shouldn't just think, "I won't lie anymore." But he has to thoroughly hate the fleshly nature of telling a lie. Otherwise, he may pray that he wants to be truthful, but when he goes back to living his life he will soon forget what he prayed for. If he gets into a situation where he can gain some benefit from it, he will lie again. Of course, after lying he will have some more pangs of conscience and pray again, but in time he will just compromise with the situation thinking that it will just be "the last time".

But if he really hates the nature of falsehood in him, he will never tell a lie even if he has to suffer a great loss. Likewise, you first have to understand how dirty evil is. You have to know how harmful and shameful a thing it is for you. When somebody goes through a trial due to his evil, he will engrave how harmful that evil is in his heart.

Let me give you an example. Suppose a person got angry about something and then he suffers from bad cold for several days. Even though he has received prayer for the sick he still has a high fever. In the meantime, he remembered that he got angry and he repented. When he received the prayer for the sick after that, suppose that the fever and cold went away. After having such an experience, he sincerely tries to cast away anger. It's the same with other sinful natures. Whether it is an adulterous mind, arrogance, hatred, envy, or jealousy, once we go through a great trial because of them, we will understand how much harm they bring upon us (Psalm 119:71).

But if we are wise enough, we can cast away those evil natures without having to undergo painful trials. We can learn a lesson from others' examples: realizing our own evil, and then casting it away. In addition, if we realize the severity of a certain form of evil after going through a trial, we can also realize the severity of other forms of evil. As written in Romans 12:9, "Abhor what is evil; cling to what is good," we have to thoroughly hate evil and cast away all forms of evil without accepting even the slightest bit of evil.

Secondly, you have to cast away fleshly thoughts.

For those who are good, not only their actions, but also all their thoughts and words are good. Even though we try to do something good, if our heart is not good, our work cannot be recognized by God as being good. Thoughts that are not good, and the thoughts that are not of the truth are all fleshly thoughts. If you long for goodness, you will try to avoid any evil thoughts and have only thoughts of goodness. Even though others do something evil to you, you do not harbor hard feelings but try to understand and forgive them. You don't pass judgment just by seeing the outward appearances; you look at their good points rather than bad points and try to think from their point of view.

But some people lose the peace of their mind due to fleshly thoughts and yet do not realize they are having fleshly thoughts. They say they are trying to act with goodness but they do not really please God because they act within their own fleshly thoughts.

Thirdly, you have to cultivate spiritual love.

As written in Romans 13:10, "Love does no wrong to a neighbor," if we have love, we will not do evil but bear good fruit in all things. Here 'love' does not refer to fleshly love that is after all self-seeking love, even though it seems very ardent. In fleshly love, if the things are not personally beneficial, a person may even do evil to another person.

In the parable of the prodigal son in Luke chapter 15, we can understand that we can cultivate goodness only when we have spiritual love. One son received the inheritance money from his father in advance. He lived a lavish and wasteful life and returned home looking like a beggar. When his son came back with a repentant heart and mind, the father was just so pleased that he threw him a big party.

But the elder son, this prodigal son's brother, came back home after working all day outdoors. He was unhappy seeing this scene. It's because his father never held any parties for him although he worked hard obeying every word of his father all the time. To him his brother deserved a great rebuke, but his father gave this son a big party as if he were some hero instead. So, this elder son couldn't understand his father. He tried to think in a good way, but the more he tried, the more he felt that he deserved to get angry over the situation. He felt victimized for he thought he deserved more than what was already given to him. If this brother insists on thinking about what is right or wrong, he cannot change his thoughts. Only fleshly thoughts will come into his mind, and he won't be able to think anything in goodness.

Then, if you were in his shoes, how would you act? Although you can't really understand your father, would you try to understand in goodness thinking, "I will try not to complain because this is what my father is doing. What my brother did is wrong, but it's good that he came back home safely?" Still even this is not goodness. You try to act in goodness, but we can't say you are really good. It means you don't understand the good heart of the father, and the action is merely suppressing your evil. Suppose the father keeps on comforting the younger brother saying, "You are not in good health. Eat something good. Rest just a bit more. How do you feel?" Then, wouldn't the elder brother get angrier and angrier?

But if he has love, he won't feel that way. If this elder brother loves his younger brother like his father loves him, he won't have any judgment or disappointment. Just like the father's heart, he will be just so thankful that his brother came back home safely. He must have pity on his brother who looks like a beggar, and just want to comfort him. If he wants to think about what is right or wrong, or if he has uncomfortable feelings, it is because he doesn't have love. Because he doesn't have love, he has to try to bear with it, and if he can't, then he will act out in evil. If you love somebody, you want him to prosper. Even if he does something wrong, you still trust him. You give good things that you have and you sacrifice and serve.

"I Was Totally Renewed after Seeing Heaven and Hell in a Dream!"

Brother Hyungbae Park (1-1st Canaan Mission, 28th Parish)

Experiencing the Holy Spirit after long years of wandering

In May of 2004, while attending a high school at the 12th grade, I once fought against a friend. Unexpectedly the friend charged me with violence and I had to suffer from many difficulties. My mother was so busy in solving the problem going around many places to meet with various people for help. But it seemed to me that she was being humiliated before worldly authorities. So I cried to her, "Please don't do that! It would be better to go to jail than to put up with such insults!"

I wanted to be released from such a suffocating situation, and I often became drunk or indulged myself in playing computer games at local PC rooms. A month later the charge was solved but I couldn't control my heart. Since I had been accepted by the university through nonscheduled admission, I didn't even attend class. In June of that same year, I registered at Manmin Central Church by the guidance of my mother and attended the summer retreat. At the summer retreat, I experienced the Holy Spirit, but afterwards he returned to the world losing the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

Touched at books of Senior Pastor during my military service

In May of 2006, I received the prayer from Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee and went into the military service. In the late November of that year, I sprained my ankle ligament and stayed at a ward due to surgical treatment. There I read a few books authored by Dr. Jaerock Lee, including The Message of the Cross, The Measure of Faith, Heaven I & II, and Hell, that my mother had sent. My broken and lonely heart became filled with the Word of God and my faith grew up. And I made up my mind to lead a fervent life of faith after completing the military service.

In 2008, I took a reward vacation shortly before the completion of the military service.

In my dream I drank with my friends and while walking along the road I saw the heaven open and the Lord coming down in the air. I thought the Lord had come again in the air as prophesied in the Bible, and immediately I was taken to the Great Judgment. All my deeds and words were revealed on the sea of glass before the throne of God.

Until then I had thought I would be able to gain salvation and enter Paradise, but I was so startled at that vision. It was because even the slightest goodness for salvation was not revealed throughout my life. Shortly after the Great Judgment I was cast into hell. I insisted in my mind that it was a mere dream and struggled desperately to wake up from that dream.

Discovering myself through that dream

After I woke up I was really comforted and shed tears of gratitude and comfort at the fact that everything was a dream. I wept with tears for some time and fell into sleep again. I found myself thrown into the lake of fire. My body was submerged into the boiling fire and only my head was seen on the surface. Countless people were screaming in agony and pain around me. I was almost crying and shouting, "Help me! Please take me out of here!"

While I was shouting, a person shining dazzling lights was walking toward me in the midst of that darkness. The person laid his hand on my head and said to me, "God the Father gave you one more chance." When I drew myself closer to him, I noticed that person was my Senior Pastor and I hugged his leg weeping out for a while.

That dream was a special grace of God, and my life changed greatly. And after the military service in May of 2008, I could keep on leading a good Christian life. Later I saw the kingdom of Heaven in my dream. I gave thanks to God and couldn't express my happiness with words because the kingdom of Heaven God has prepared for us is amazingly beautiful. I was so thankful for the grace of God that I eagerly wanted to become a son who would be able to contribute to the church and the shepherd. Accordingly I tried my best to become sanctified, and prayed and fulfilled my God-given duties faithfully.

Filled with the Lord's love and the hope for Heaven

In September of 2009, I joined in the Volunteers' Mission and possessed greater love for the church. I was really happy at the fact I was serving and volunteering someone else.

In April of 2010, I began to pray I might give more offering at the College and Canaan Missions' Devotional Service than ever before. I had little money as a college student. Seven days before the devotional service was held, I was praying to God, thinking, "What else but prayers can I offer to God?" An idea came upon my mind: to spread the church and the shepherd with Manmin News.

That night I immediately obeyed that guidance rising from my heart. After Daniel Prayer Meeting, I took 1,000 copies of newsletters to my home and folded them one by one. I took two bags having those 1,000 copies of newsletters and went out early morning. I felt a little pain on my shoulders on which I placed the two bags. I thought, 'Lord Jesus was severely flogged, wore the crown of thorns and took that heavy cross on His shoulder.' I was ashamed that I had felt pains on my shoulders. For a week until the devotional service day fell on, I took out 1,000 copies of newsletters every morning and spread 7,000 copies in total. My heart became filled with joy and the love for God. After offering that devotional service to God, my hope for New Jerusalem became stronger and I have been running the race of faith more fervently.

My heart couldn't be filled with anything in the world. But now my heart is full of the Lord's love and the hope for Heaven. This year 2010 is the beginning of the third stage of the takeoff in Manmin. I want to leap into deeper level of spirit and be faithful to the church and the shepherd. I give all thanks and glory to God who has guided me in His abundant grace.
