Consideration

If you love someone,
you'll consider him.
It may seem trivial,
but consideration has the power
to move people's hearts.

Even when making
an appointment,
a considerate person thinks
the other person's convenience,
heart, circumstances, and etc.

He seeks the benefit of others,
even if he suffers loss.
If he has something to point out someone
or give advice to him,
he doesn't do it spontaneously
but observes the time
when he is in a good mood
so that he doesn't get hurt.

Since he always looks with the other person's point of view in his every word and even in his single behavior,
it's warm and peaceful to be with him.

To sum up, all of you be harmonious,
sympathetic, brotherly, kindhearted,
and humble in spirit;
(1 Peter 3:8)

Overseas Branch Churches glorified God with their special praise

At the evening service, special praises which have been filmed and sent by the overseas branch church members are giving grace to the believers who're attending the service both on-site and online. They made use of local characteristics for their praises and worship dances, which impressed the believers very much.

Starting with Pastor Dmitry Petrovsky from Israel on April 18, the choir of Kinsha Manmin Church in D.R. Congo, the choir of Saint Petersburg Manmin Church in Russia, Moldava Manmin, the members of 6 Deaf-mute Manmin Churches in Malaysia, Pastor Oleg Hajin from Israel, and the worship team of Colombia Manmin Church, the members of overseas branch churches glorified God with their special praises. Love Rejoices with the Truth

“Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth;”
(1 Corinthians 13:4-6)

Unlike other apostles, the apostle John was not martyred. He received the revelation of Jesus Christ and spread the gospel and God's will widely.

Nothing pleased him more than hearing that the believers were trying to live by God's word, the truth. In 3 John 1:4 it says, "I have no greater joy than this, to hear of my children walking in the truth." We can see the reason why he was called an apostle of love.

If we possess spiritual love, we will not only refrain from evil but put the truth into practice. Furthermore, we will rejoice with the truth. Love is an expression of rejoicing with the truth.

The truth refers to Jesus Christ and furthermore the gospel and the entire Bible. If you love God and are loved by Him, you'd definitely rejoice with Jesus Christ and the works of the gospel. You'd rejoice with the expansion of God's kingdom.

Now, let us delve into the meaning of rejoicing with the truth more specifically.

1. Rejoice with the gospel of Jesus Christ

The essence of the gospel is that anyone who believes in Jesus Christ can be saved and go to the kingdom of heaven.

Many people have sought the truth throughout the history. They have philosophy and many other ideas to get the answer to the fundamental questions like, "What is the purpose of life," and "What is life's true value?"

The truth is Jesus Christ, and without Him no one can go to heaven. John 14:6 says, Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus Christ is the only way of salvation.

We can gain eternal life and go to heaven only when our sins are forgiven by the blood of Jesus Christ. It is only natural that we rejoice with the truth because we have come to live a valuable life knowing the purpose of it. Those who rejoice with the truth should spread the gospel. They should also fulfill their God-given duties. They rejoice when the number of those who are saved is added to (1 Tim. 2:4).

However, some get jealous when other people get the fruit of their evangelism. Some churches are jealous when other churches are having a revival and giving glory to God. Such mindsets obviously do not rejoice with the truth.

If we have spiritual love, we will rejoice when the kingdom of God is accomplished greatly. If others bear the fruit of evangelism, we will rejoice and give thanks. We will rejoice when other churches are growing. This is love that rejoices with the gospel.

2. Rejoice with everything that belongs to the truth

Love rejoices with seeing, hearing, and doing all the things that are of the truth, such as goodness and love.

Those who rejoice with the truth would rejoice in even a little act of goodness. They feel God's word is as sweet as honey. They take pleasure learning and reading the Bible. They take pleasure in practicing God's word. They obey God's word that tells us to love, serve, and forgive even those who give us a hard time.

David wanted to build the Temple because he loved God, but God didn't allow it, for David had shed a lot of blood with his hands as a soldier (1 Chron. 28:3). Even though those killings were inevitable ones in the battles, he was not the right person to build the Temple.

Although he couldn't build the Temple with his own hands, he prepared all the building materials so his son, Solomon, could build it. David was filled with overwhelming joy while preparing the materials with the people (1 Chron. 29:9).

Those who rejoice with the truth will rejoice with other people's prosperity. They can't even imagine envy, jealousy, or secretly wanting others to fail. They mourn when they see unrighteousness.

Those who rejoice with the truth are inclined towards hearts of goodness such as uprightness, integrity, honesty, etc. They rejoice with words and acts of goodness. God also rejoices over those people (Zeph. 3:17).

However, you don't have to be disheartened even if you do not rejoice with the truth yet. God will acknowledge your effort as rejoicing with the truth.

3. Try to believe God's word and practice it as it is

It's a rarity to find anyone who rejoices with the truth right from the beginning. When they have darkness and untruth in their heart, they harbor evil thoughts or rejoice with unrighteousness. However, as they are changed and cast away untruths, they can rejoice only with the truth, but they have to exert effort to do so.

Not everyone is always happy attending worship services. New believers might feel tired because they don't understand everything. However, the act of coming to the church itself is their effort to obey the word of God. It is to rejoice with the truth, receive salvation, and go to the kingdom of heaven.

Eventually they will hear God's word, believe in God, and believe that there is heaven and hell. They learn everyone receives different amounts of rewards, so they try to sanctify themselves and become faithful. Even though one cannot rejoice with the truth 100%, everybody tries to do their best within their measure of faith. This is also to rejoice with the truth.

4. Hunger and thirst for truth

We rejoice with the truth because only the truth can change us. When we hear the gospel and live by it, we get eternal life and we begin to change into a true child of God. When we're filled with hope of heaven and spiritual love, our faces shine with joy.

We're also happy that we are loved by God and God's people.

Therefore, we have to hunger and thirst for truth in addition to rejoicing with the truth. Just as our body craves food and water when we're hungry and thirsty, we have to crave the truth so we can be transformed quickly. The more spiritual love we have, the more we will eat and drink the truth.

Eating and drinking the truth signifies we diligently take the bread of and practice God's word. The Bible is the treasure box that gives us solutions to all life's problems, secrets of blessings, the way of salvation and eternal life. We can be blessed when we stay near God's word.

When we're with a person we love very much, it'd be difficult to hide our joy. In the same way, we can't meet God now, but if we do love Him, it will show. We are happy just by hearing about the truth, and others will notice our happiness and joy.

Also, we'd burst into tears just thinking about God and the Lord, or by seeing a little act of goodness. The tears of thanksgiving or tears of mourning for souls will become precious gemstones in heaven that will be used as decorations in each one's houses in heaven.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I pray in the name of the Lord that you will possess this beautiful spiritual love and rejoice with the truth so that you will be loved by God in all aspects of your life.

6 Deaf-mute Manmin Church members in Malaysia

My mother Deaconess Yeonok Kim joined Manmin Central Church in 2003. At that time, she had an amazing experience that the large lump on her armpit disappeared after receiving the prayer of Dr. Jaerock Lee. Then, she told me, who was living in China about God and the Lord, and she said she was happy with her Christian life. Eventually, through my mother's evangelism, I registered online in 2011 and became the flock of Manmin.

Then, in March 2012, a crushing thing happened to me. I kept breeding and I went to the hospital for a check-up, which said I had terminal uterine cancer. The doctor said that I had to have the uterus removed by surgery.

My mother heard about my situation and said to receive Dr. Jaerock Lee's prayer because God could heal me. She offered one meal fasting for 21 days for me and tried to please God doing her duty diligently.

And she received prayer from Dr. Lee for me. I prayed with faith in China at the same hour. God healed my uterine cancer completely through Dr. Lee's prayer as my mother believed. Hallelujah!

After experiencing God's power, I became earnest

The best Christian life where you can meet and experience God

Deaconess Youngja Park
(Age 56, 1st Chinese Parish, in the center)

to attend Manmin Central Church. So, in 2013 the next year, I came to Korea. While living a spirit-filled Christian life, I was also healed of degenerative arthritis completely.

Not only this, but my husband (Deacon Changho Ma) also experienced the power of God. One day, he had a black line in the middle of his left eye and could only see two-thirds of his view. So, he went to see a doctor, and the doctor said it was a rupture of the retinal blood vessel and recommended surgery. But he was healed of it after receiving Dr. Lee's prayer for the sick at the Manmin Summer Retreat in August, 2016. In addition, his eyesight which were 0.3 and 1.5 improved to 1.5 for both eyes.

In this way, as I experienced the existence of God and clearly understood the will of God through Dr. Jaerock Lee's word of life, I came to hope for Heaven and pray daily to abide in the Word. A life of knowing the will of God contained in the Bible and obeying it, a life of receiving answers and blessings when you practicing the word with faith, I think it is the best Christian life. I give thanks and glory to God who blessed me with amazing power and the word of life.

I am healed of panic disorder and depression.

Mauricio Sanchez
(Age 37, Santander Spain)

My faith, which was firm when I started my Christian life, cooled down over time and eventually I fell into temptations of the world.

Then one day, I had severe anxiety and fell to the floor. And I felt like I had a heart attack. From that time on, I suffered from panic disorder, but the symptoms disappeared when I repented clinging to God for healing. However, I quickly forgot the grace of God who healed me, and I fell into the temptations again. I rationalized my weakness, thinking 'I can't help it.'

But after a while, panic disorder and depression got worse. Only then did I thoroughly look back on myself and repent, and I had to make more efforts than ever to restore my faith.

In the meantime, I heard Mrs. Boknim Lee would lead the On-line Latin America Healing Meeting and I was delighted with confidence that I could be healed.

But soon, the forces of darkness disturbed my thought and mind, not to be able to attend the meeting. So, I prepared myself for the meeting by fasting.

My family and I decided to restore our relationships with God at the day of Divine Healing Meeting, March 8th. I attended the meeting at dawn because of the time difference, and I felt the coolness and peace which filled my body and my whole house. It was like God was touching me and my heart felt very relieved and refreshed.

That night, I was able to sleep deeply after a long time, feeling the peace of the Holy Spirit. It felt as if my soul had woken up from sleep, and I was given a strong desire to pray. My Christian life was filled with the Holy Spirit again as before.

Senior Pastor, Dr. Jaerock Lee said, "You shouldn't stop circumcising your heart. You should finish your adoration as a bride of the Lord and preserved the pureness until the day the Lord comes." I had forgotten the words of God but the Holy Spirit prayed for me and led me back to the Lord.

The Online Divine Healing Meeting was amazing. It is because the works of the Holy Spirit, which take place in Manmin beyond time and space, give strength to Christians who live in the end time. Having restored my normal life, I am being renewed everyday by the power of the Holy Spirit. Hallelujah!
