Healed from Dizziness That Made the Pavement Seem to Sway

Sunja Park | Female, 62 | Gwangmyeong, Gyeonggi Province, Korea

Around mid-April 2025, I felt dizzy one morning after using the restroom. Later, while crossing a street, my head suddenly went blank and I lost my balance. It was so severe that it felt like the pavement was shaking beneath me, as if the ground itself were swaying.

I nearly fell several times and always had to walk with tension. As the symptoms persisted, I decided to seek healing at the May Divine Healing Meeting. On May 26, 2025, I attended the Special Daniel Night Prayer Meeting led by Pastor Soojin Lee. That day, the pastor's message felt like it was spoken directly to me, and her prayer felt personally meant for me. That led me to bitterly repent with tears.

I used to feel sorry for people who walked while glued to their phones. But before I knew it, I too had become absorbed in worldly news, walking with my eyes on the screen. I looked back on my life, realizing how unfaithful to God I had been, and repented with tears and a runny nose.

Pastor Soojin Lee's prayers were so full of grace that during the day, I would replay the recorded Daniel Night Prayer meetings uploaded on the GCN website and pray for two hours daily. Then, on the morning of Thursday, May 29, while coming home from grocery shopping, I felt unusually light and stable—it was clear that I had been healed.

The dizziness that made the road and pavement seem to sway completely disappeared, and I found myself walking straight again. Hallelujah! I give all thanks and glory to God who healed me.

Kidney Stone That Couldn't Be Broken at the Hospital Disappeared After Prayer

Seolsong Hwang | Male, 46 | Guro-gu, Seoul, Korea

On Sunday morning, March 16, 2025, I was struck by severe pain in my side. At the ER, doctors confirmed that a kidney stone was descending from my kidney. The stone measured about 8–10 mm and was large and solid.

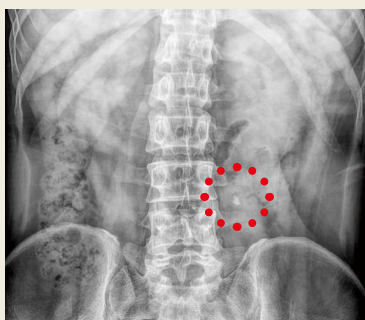

Since that hospital didn't have equipment to break the stone, I went to a specialized clinic for the procedure. After the first shock wave treatment, some stone fragments and blood came out in my urine, but during the second visit, the stone was still intact. I grew uneasy. The pain continued, and on May 20, it became so intense that it felt life-threatening.

I went back to the hospital for another procedure, but the doctor said the stone was too hard to be removed and sent me home. The pain became unbearable—my body turned cold, my breathing quickened, and my blood pressure dropped. I felt like I was going to die. In that moment, I looked back on my life and repented deeply.

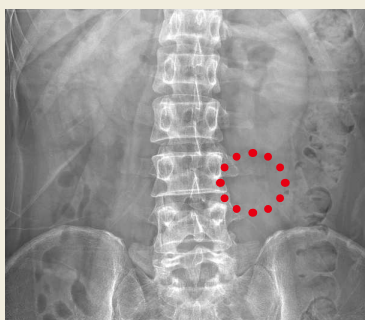

"Father God, please don't take my life. Let me live again. I will return to the faith of my first love." With this confession, I looked back on how I had let worldly videos capture my heart and how I had neglected my prayer life, remaining in lukewarm faith. I wept in deep repentance before God.

Longing to be healed at the May Divine Healing Meeting, I went to church every day to repent and pray. Remembering the works of power I had witnessed at our church, I prayed earnestly, "Father God, You are almighty—please make the stone disappear."

Finally, on May 30, during the Divine Healing Meeting, I received Pastor Soojin Lee's prayer for the sick. My whole body felt hot, and a burning sensation came over me. That warmth continued for several days after the meeting. With a hopeful heart, I went back to the hospital on June 3 for a detailed CT scan, and something amazing happened.

The doctor said, "The stone is completely gone." He was astonished, adding, "It's extremely rare for a stone this large to disappear on its own. How did it vanish completely?" The large stone had disappeared from my body without a trace. Hallelujah! I give all thanks and glory to God who saved me from unbearable pain and completely healed me.

Healed from 23 Years of Hearing Loss

Hyosoon Jung | Female, 70 | Dongjak-gu, Seoul, Korea

About 23 years ago, I hit my head against a wall and lost all hearing in my right ear. Though the doctor said that my eardrum was fine, I couldn't hear a thing. Even after coming to Korea, I continued to suffer from ear discharge, and neither medication nor hospital treatments helped. Eventually, I gave up, thinking, 'I guess I just have to live like this.'

Since coming to Korea in 2002, I've endured tough jobs to make a living, going through knee, back, and arm surgeries. Nearly twenty years passed with my life of faith completely cut off. In recent years especially, the loss of family members and accidents led me to struggle with depression and memory decline—it felt as if my whole life was falling apart.

Then one day in April 2025, Senior Deaconess Mija Choi who lives in the same building, warmly reached out to me. I had always turned her down, saying I was too busy. But that day, my heart was different. On Sunday, April 27, I registered at the church and attended worship. From then on, I daily listened to Pastor Soojin Lee's Only Bible sermons that she sent me and began to regain peace of mind. I was also spiritually comforted through the recorded Prayer for the Sick by Pastor Emeritus, Dr. Jaerock Lee.

On Monday, May 12, I was invited to attend the Daniel Prayer Meeting with Senior Deaconess Choi. During the praise time, I sang along with hymns I used to know and was deeply moved. During the prayer time, Deaconess Choi laid the handkerchief of God's power on which Pastor Emeritus prayed on my right ear and earnestly prayed for me.

At that moment, a deep and burning emotion rose from within. With tears, I poured out a confession of repentance for the 20 years I had lived away from God. Around 10 p.m. that night, on my way home, I suddenly felt as if I could hear something in my right ear which had been deaf.

When I got home, I held my phone up to that ear and checked the ringtone and some recorded messages. To my amazement, I could hear them clearly! For the first time in 23 years, I could clearly hear voices, ringtones, and everything through the ear that had been completely deaf.

Overflowing with joy, I called my friends and husband to share the news. Even my husband who hadn't attended church showed deep interest in this amazing event, and later began watching Sunday worship service videos I sent him.

Now, the Word has become the light of my life, and I'm receiving much grace through The Message of the Cross sermon series. I also feel God's presence through the Prayer for the Sick. I hope this testimony of healing from 23 years of hearing loss will serve as a testimony of faith to others facing the same hardship. I give all thanks and glory to God who healed me. Hallelujah!

Jesus Was Pierced in His Side, but His Legs Were Not Broken

The day Jesus died on the cross was Friday, the day before the holy Sabbath. For the Jews, the Sabbath—Saturday—was a highly significant day, so they couldn't leave the corpses on the cross. The Jews went to Governor Pilate and asked him to have the legs of the crucified men broken and their bodies taken down (John 19:31).

With Pilate's permission, the soldiers broke the legs of the criminals on either side of Jesus. But when they saw that Jesus was already dead, they did not break His legs. In those days, the legs of the crucified were broken because they were seen as cursed. Yet, Jesus' legs were not broken. This was clearly the result of God's providence.

The Reason Jesus' Legs Were Not Broken

Though Jesus was completely sinless, He took the curse in our place and died on the wooden cross to redeem all mankind from the curse of the Law. It was by God's providence that He was crucified, never because of His sin. Therefore, the enemy devil had no power to break even one of His bones.

As Psalm 34:20 writes, "He protects all his bones, Not one of them is broken," God protected Jesus' bones from being broken. In Numbers 9:12, God commanded the Israelites to eat the lamb "without breaking any of its bones." Likewise, in Exodus 12:46, He instructed them to eat the lamb's meat but not to break any of its bones.

"He protects all his bones,
Not one of them is broken."
(Psalm 34:20)

The lamb here refers to Jesus Christ who was without any blemish or defect and loved us to the point of giving Himself as a peace offering. As God commanded, "Do not break any of the lamb's bones," none of Jesus' bones were broken.

The Reason Jesus Was Pierced in His Side

John 19:33–34 reads, "But when they came to Jesus, they saw that He was already dead, so they did not break His legs. Yet one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out." Although the Roman soldier had already confirmed Jesus' death, he pierced His side with a spear, causing blood and water to flow out. This act plainly shows the true evil of the human heart.

As we find in Philippians 2:6–8,

Jesus was in very nature God but did not regard equality with God as something to be grasped. He emptied Himself, taking the form of a bond-servant and being made in the likeness of men. By humbling Himself and dying on the cross, He opened the way of salvation for us (Philippians 2:6–8).

During His time on earth, Jesus set the captives free, gave abundance to the poor, and healed the sick and the weak. He devoted Himself day and night to proclaim the Word of God and save even one more soul. In this way, Jesus did only good and gave His all to bring life and restoration to people.

Nevertheless, many of the Jews misunderstood, envied, and persecuted Him. In the end, they had Him crucified amidst contempt and mockery. Though Jesus had already breathed His last, a Roman soldier still pierced His side with a spear — a truly horrific act that piled evil upon evil.

This scene reveals the wickedness and stubbornness of the human heart, exposing how deeply rooted our sinful nature is. Yet, God did not turn away from us even while we were in sin, but loved us to the very end by giving His only begotten Son. That deep love still calls out to us today and embraces us with unfathomable grace.
