People Who Met God

Like the rest and peace offered by a deep forest, your soul finds rest in the Lord

The nail pain and blisters that had lasted for three years have disappeared

Ihwa Kim | Female, 47, Siheung, Gyeonggi

Three years ago, after frequently using scissors while tending the garden of my house, unusual symptoms began in the nail of the fourth finger on my right hand. I started to feel sharp, stabbing pain on the upper part of the nail, followed by redness and inflammation. The nail then began to grow with a deep, U-shaped groove.

Blisters would repeatedly form and burst on the skin above the nail. While doing the dishes, the blisters would burst and sting, making it difficult to use scissors freely. I couldn't apply strength to my fingertips, so even brushing through my dog's fur was painful and challenging. Whenever my hand accidentally bumped into someone or when shaking hands, the pain would intensify, so I had to ask for understanding in advance. The staff at the nail salon would look at my hand with concern and repeatedly ask if it hurt.

Meanwhile, arthritis that began in my twenties had deformed my finger joints, but God gradually healed me through various meetings like the summer retreat, allowing me to live without pain. Having experienced this grace, I received prayer from pastor Soojin Lee during the March Divine Healing Meeting, believing that this nail condition would also be healed.

At the moment of prayer, I felt a burning heat in my body and gained a firm assurance of healing. After the service, I noticed something remarkable. The blisters that had recurred for over three years disappeared completely, as if peeled off like Scotch tape, and for the past four months, they have not returned once. The pain in my finger is gone, and the nail, once deeply grooved in a U-shape, is now growing back smooth and whole. After three years, it has returned to normal. Hallelujah! I give all glory to Father God who healed me.

I was healed of a fracture of the greater tubercle of the humerus caused by a motorcycle accident

Dipanshu Shud | Male, 18, Delhi, India

On April 27, while riding a motorcycle, I suddenly slipped and was involved in a serious accident. I lost consciousness on the spot, and later I was told that the bleeding at the time was very severe. At that moment, between life and death, an unknown person found me and took me to the hospital. I am still deeply grateful to the one who reached out a helping hand in my most desperate moment.

About 30 minutes after arriving at the hospital, I regained consciousness, but my condition was serious. I had deep wounds on my face and all over my body, and due to severe pain and dizziness, I could hardly walk or even lift my arm. After detailed examinations, I was diagnosed with a fracture of the greater tubercle of the left humerus, and was told that surgery was unavoidable. Soon after, upon hearing about the accident, Sister Kavita and Brother Akash from Delhi Manmin Church came to the hospital, comforting me and earnestly praying for me. As for me, although I had lived a life of faith for years, I had not worshiped in spirit and truth or devoted myself to prayer. I tearfully repented of neglecting my church duties, making excuses about being busy.

Then, the next day, something remarkable happened. The doctor who had said surgery was unavoidable checked my condition again and gave unexpected news: "You won't need surgery." Although I avoided the operation, the doctors said it would take considerable time for the fracture to heal. As I could not stay hospitalized for long, I was discharged, but I still could not move my left shoulder, and even walking or going to the restroom was difficult. In the midst of this, on May 29, I attended a healing service led by Pastor Lee Sujin.

As I reflected on my lukewarm faith and repented with a sincere heart, strength came into my legs that had made walking difficult, allowing me to walk normally again, and I was also able to freely lift the arm I could not move. Even the deep wounds on my body were completely healed. Hallelujah! Now I am living in good health, faithfully carrying out my church duties. I give all thanks and glory to Father God who protected me from the moment of death and healed me without surgery.

Being in good health after healing

Let's pray together for our families

"Father God of goodness, now we pray for our families. As we show through our lives how warm Your love is and how joyful and happy it is to come to church, please lead our family members who have not yet been evangelized to take our hands and come to church with us. Today as well, please watch over, protect, and grant peace to all our beloved family members wherever they are. We pray in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen."

I was healed of hemiplegia and can now walk without a cane

Aro Mayo | Male, 52, Chiang Rai, Thailand

At around 10 a.m. on November 27, 2023, while riding on the back of a friend's motorcycle, I suddenly felt dizzy, lost consciousness, and fell off the bike. At the hospital, my blood pressure had spiked above 180, and from that moment I developed hemiplegia, leaving me unable to move my left arm and leg.

Suffering from hemiplegia before healing

With the use of only one hand, even bathing became difficult, and I was unable to manage daily life on my own. Feeling like a burden to my mother, I fell into deep despair and even considered committing a suicide, but thankfully one of my friends stopped me.

After being discharged, I began suffering from insomnia. Worries about my condition and endless thoughts kept me from sleeping, and this continued for over three months. Then, in March 2026, I began attending Chiang Rai Manmin Church. The moment I entered the sanctuary, I felt an indescribable peace, and that night I was finally able to sleep deeply and comfortably. From then on, I gradually began to feel that God was with me.

Afterwards, seeing the works of God's power manifested through the prayers of pastor Soojin Lee, my faith grew. I resolved to rely on God alone, kept the Lord's Day holy with all my heart, and offered Wednesday and Friday all-night services in spirit and truth. I also attended the Daniel Prayer Meeting every day, prayed earnestly, and received prayer from pastor Soojin Lee through the recorded video.

God poured out amazing grace. Since my youth, I had been unable to quit drinking and smoking despite many efforts, but after receiving baptism in April 2026, I was completely freed from both. My quick temper also changed into a calm and gentle nature.

In addition, after pastor Jaewon Lee of Chiang Rai Manmin Church prayed for me, laying his hand on from my shoulder down to my legs, the stiffness in my leg muscles and tendons was greatly relieved. My body felt lighter and more comfortable, and walking became easier. The leg that had barely moved began to move much more freely, and my hand, which had not moved, also regained motion. Before, I had to lift my foot with my hand to move it forward, but now I can extend it without help. Finally, from late June this year, I was able to walk without a cane. Hallelujah!

Now I no longer take medication or visit the hospital. Joy and peace have filled my heart. Not only within myself, but also in my relationships with others, I have become much more at peace, and my faith and hope for heaven have grown stronger. Above all, I am so happy coming to church. I give all thanks and glory to Father God who reached out to me, renewed both my body and heart, and granted me a new life.

Do You Have Faith Acknowledged by God? (3)

We Must Diligently Listen to, Learn, and Practice God's Word

To change fleshly faith into spiritual faith, we must diligently listen to and be taught God's Word, as Romans 10:17 says, "So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ." If we do not store God's Word as knowledge, we cannot know the truth, and thus cannot put it into practice.

But we must not stop here. Storing up the Word merely as knowledge without practicing it can lead to arrogance, and God does not grant spiritual faith to such a person. For the Word we have learned and stored up to become spiritual faith, there must be deeds of obeying according to the Word. Just as memorizing a sheet of music does not mean you can play the piano well without practicing with your fingers, we must actively put it into practice.

Filling the heart with truth means casting off untruth within ourselves—such as hatred, strife, envy, and adultery which God tells us to discard—and being transformed into a man of truth who lowers themselves, serves, and loves even enemies. As we are transformed in this way, God grants us spiritual faith. Of course, even

"Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for,
the conviction
of things not seen.
For by it the men of old gained approval."

Hebrews 11:1-2

when trying to obey, hatred may not go away easily, or outbursts of anger may occur. In such times, we must receive the power to obey even by offering vowed prayers or fasts.

When we pray fervently like this and sincerely seek His grace and power, God will surely give us the ability to obey, and as we practice His Word, we can possess spiritual faith. With this faith, blessings come as promised in God's Word. As our soul prospers, all things go well with us and we enjoy good health. We can also have our heart's desires answered. Once we experience blessings, we can obey even greater things leading to even stronger faith.

Let me give you an example. You know that drinking water relieves thirst. Believing this knowledge and drinking water actually quenches the thirst. Once this becomes an experience, one automatically seeks water whenever thirsty. God's Word works the same way. Even if you have faith small as a mustard seed, once you obey and practice the Word, you can experience His work. And through that experience, spiritual faith is given.

As faith is granted from above, it becomes easier to act according to the Word. When spiritual faith grows to full maturity, we can obey even if God commands something seemingly impossible. Some believers ask, "Since my faith is not weak and I cannot live by the Word fully, will I not be answered even if I pray?" However, even if our faith is small, God gives us spiritual faith if only we prepare a vessel worthy of His answers.

If we seek healing, we are to pray, fast, and diligently do what pleases God, thereby preparing a vessel. Then God will grant us faith from above, through which we will be healed. Of course, with greater faith, the aroma of our prayers rises more abundantly and beautifully, making answers come more easily. Yet the more important reason we must attain a greater measure of faith is that our future dwelling place in heaven will differ according to our faith.
